Amends TCA Title 10, Chapter 7, Part 5; Title 38; Title 40 and Title 55, Chapter 10, Part 1.

Senator Dickerson moved to amend as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1

AMEND by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 10-7-504(a), is amended by adding the following as a new subdivision (31):

(A) Except as provided in subdivisions (a)(31)(B) - (D), personally identifying information of any person named in any motor vehicle accident report is confidential and not open for public inspection.

(B) Notwithstanding subdivision (a)(31)(A) and upon written request, any person named in any motor vehicle accident report, or such person's agent, legal representative, or attorney, certifying that the person has permission from the person, persons, or entities authorized to obtain motor vehicle records information pursuant to § 55-25-107(b)(1), (6) or (9), is authorized to receive an accident report containing personally identifying information of persons involved in the accident.

(C) Notwithstanding subdivision (a)(31)(A), any federal, state, or local governmental agency, or any private person or entity acting on behalf of a federal, state, or local governmental agency, may use personally identifying information in carrying out the agency's functions.

(D) Nothing in this subdivision (a)(31) prevents a law enforcement entity from releasing information about traffic accidents to the public, including the name, age, and county or city of residence of a person involved in an accident, when the law enforcement entity determines such release is in the best interest of the agency and for the public good.

(E) For purposes of this subdivision (a)(31), "personally identifying information" means:

- (i) Street addresses and zip codes;
- (ii) Telephone numbers;
- (iii) Driver license numbers; and
- (iv) Insurance information.

(F) This subdivision (a)(31) is repealed June 30, 2026.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-10-108(d), is amended by deleting the language "The report under subsection (b)" and substituting instead the following:

Except for personally identifying information described in § 10-7-504(a)(31), the report under subsection (b)

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-10-108(f), is amended by deleting the subsection in its entirety and substituting instead the following:

(1) Any report of a motor vehicle accident investigated by the department or prepared pursuant to subsection (b) is open to public inspection as a public record under the public records laws compiled in title 10, chapter 7, with the exception of personally identifying information as provided in § 10-7-504(a)(31).

(2) It is a Class B misdemeanor, punishable only by fine of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per occurrence for any person to knowingly use the report or information contained in the report for solicitation that is prohibited by a standard of conduct or practice of any profession licensed by this state. Any person requesting the disclosure of personally identifying information who misrepresents that person's identity or makes a false statement on any request submitted pursuant to this chapter commits a Class B misdemeanor, punishable only by a fine of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per occurrence.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-10-108(g), is amended by deleting the subsection in its entirety and substituting instead the following:

(g) A person who holds a professional license regulated by the executive branch of this state who uses information obtained pursuant to this section in violation of a statute, code of professional ethics, or rule of professional conduct applicable to that person commits a Class B misdemeanor, punishable by fine only of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per occurrence.

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 55-10-108, is amended by adding the following as a new subsection (h) and redesignating appropriately the current subsection (h) and remaining subsections accordingly:

(h) In addition to any other remedies, a person whose personally identifying information is obtained in violation of subdivision (f)(2) or subsection (g) may bring a private right of action individually to recover actual damages against the person or entity committing such violation. The trial court may award a civil penalty up to two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) per act or occurrence against such person or entity. The action may be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the alleged violation took place or in the county in which the plaintiff resides. Upon a determination of a violation by the trier of fact, the court may award the plaintiff reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. The private right of action provided in this subsection (h) does not apply to contact by persons or entities allowed to obtain personally identifying information pursuant to § 10-7-504(a)(31)(B) or other applicable law.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect July 1, 2019, the public welfare requiring it.

Senate Bill No. 1389 -- Death -- As introduced, authorizes the development and use of a commemorative certificate of nonviable birth. Amends TCA Title 63 and Title 68.

Senator Crowe moved to amend as follows:

AMENDMENT NO. 1

AMEND by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 68, Chapter 3, Part 5, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) As used in this section:

(1) "Commemorative certificate" means a document commemorating a nonviable birth;

(2) "Department" means the department of health; and

(3) "Nonviable birth" means an unintentional, spontaneous fetal demise occurring prior to the twentieth week of gestation during a pregnancy that has been verified by a healthcare practitioner.

(b)(1) A healthcare practitioner licensed pursuant to title 63 who attends or diagnoses a nonviable birth, or a healthcare facility licensed pursuant to this title at which a nonviable birth occurs, may, based on the practitioner's best medical judgement and knowledge of the patient, advise a patient who experiences a nonviable birth that the patient may request a commemorative certificate from the department of health as provided in this section. The healthcare practitioner may delegate this duty to the practitioner's designee. The healthcare practitioner or the practitioner's designee shall provide the patient with a form provided by the department pursuant to subdivision (b)(2) and executed by the healthcare practitioner's or the practitioner's designee.

(2) The department shall provide on the department's website a form to be executed by a healthcare practitioner or the practitioner's designee affirming that a patient experienced a nonviable birth that the healthcare practitioner attended or diagnosed.

(c) Upon the request of the patient and submission of the executed form, the department shall issue a commemorative certificate within sixty (60) days after receipt of the request. The department shall charge a fee not to exceed its actual cost for issuing the commemorative certificate.

(d)(1) The commemorative certificate must contain the name of the fetus and the sex, if known. If the name is not furnished by the patient, the department shall fill in the commemorative certificate with the name Baby Boy or Baby Girl and the last name of the patient, and if the sex of the child is also unknown, the department shall fill in the commemorative certificate with the name Baby and the last name of the patient.

(2) The following statement must appear on the front of the commemorative certificate:

This commemorative certificate is not proof of a live birth.

(e) The department shall not register the birth associated with a commemorative certificate issued under this section or use it to calculate live birth statistics. The commemorative certificate is commemorative in nature and has no legal effect.

(f) A commemorative certificate issued under this section must not be used to establish, bring, or support a civil cause of action seeking damages against any person or entity for bodily injury, personal injury, or wrongful death for a nonviable birth.

(g) A commemorative certificate issued under this section is not a public record.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.

On motion, Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

AMENDMENT NO. 2

AMEND by adding the following as new subdivisions in § 47-18-5602 in Section 1:

() "Affiliate" means a person who controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a licensee. As used in this subdivision (), "control" means the direct or indirect possession of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management of a licensee, whether through ownership of more than fifteen percent (15%) of the voting securities, by contract, or otherwise;

() "Financial institution" means a bank, including a commercial bank, savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, mortgage bank, or a trust company, in each case engaged in the business of banking, that is chartered under federal or state law and regulated by a federal or state banking regulatory agency;

() "Material" means, with respect to any disclosure required by this part, information as to which a reasonable person would attach a financial impact of greater than ten thousand dollars ($10,000);

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting subdivision (2) in § 47-18-5602 in Section 1.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting subdivision (10) in § 47-18-5602 in Section 1 and substituting the following:

THURSDAY, MARCH 21, 2019 -- 19TH LEGISLATIVE DAY

() "Person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, or any other commercial entity. "Person" does not include a government or government subdivision, agency or instrumentality;

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting subsection (b) in § 47-18-5603 in Section 1 and substituting the following:

(b) Receipt of a license by a licensee is deemed consent to the jurisdiction of this state.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting subsection (f) in § 47-18-5603 in Section 1.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting subdivision (2) in § 47-18-5604 in Section 1 and renumbering existing subdivisions accordingly.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting subdivision (a)(4) in § 47-18-5606 in Section 1 and substituting the following:

(4) An executive officer, director, managing member, or principal of the applicant has been convicted of or pled nolo contendere to a felony or crime involving fraud, deceit, or dishonesty;

AND FURTHER AMEND by adding the following to the end of subsection (b) in § 47-18-5607 in Section 1:

However, the commissioner may suspend the license pursuant to § 47-18-5608(c).

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting § 47-18-5607(c) in Section 1 and substituting the following:

(c) Except as provided in § 4-5-320, a licensee must receive notice and a hearing before the commissioner revokes or suspends a license. This subsection (c) must be liberally construed to permit the summary suspension of a license when the agency finds that the public health, safety, or welfare imperatively requires emergency action.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting § 47-18-5608 in Section 1 and substituting the following:

(a) The commissioner may promulgate rules as necessary for the administration and enforcement of this part and may require a reasonable licensure and investigations fee in connection with the issuance of any license required by this part.

(b) The Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, compiled in title 4, chapter 5, governs all matters and procedures respecting the hearing and judicial review of any violation or contested case arising under this part.

(c) If the commissioner finds that a delay in issuing any order under this part will threaten the health, safety, or welfare such that emergency action is required, then the commissioner may summarily suspend the license pursuant to § 4-5-320.

(d) Any order issued pursuant to this section is subject to review by appeal to the Davidson County chancery court, pursuant to § 4-5-322.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting subdivision (c)(14) in § 47-18-5611 in Section 1 and substituting the following:

(14) Whether the consumer's rights are subject to mandatory arbitration of any and all disputes. However, nothing in this subdivision (c)(14) supersedes the requirement of § 47-18-5616(b).

AND FURTHER AMEND by adding the following as new sections in Section 1:

47-18-5624. Severability.

If any provision of this part or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, then the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this part that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

Notwithstanding this part or any other law, the Uniform Debt-Management Services Act, compiled in part 55 of this chapter, does not apply to the licensure and operation of a licensee providing only debt resolution services.
